

ORDERING INFORMATION

The Loggia is an ideal venue for an outdoor concert. Covered, but open on three sides for a beautiful view during sunset, the acoustics are wonderful, providing great sound both on the Loggia and the adjacent Lawn. Loggia patrons have unreserved seating in chairs on the same level as the performers, and Lawn patrons have wonderful sound with the chance to lie on a blanket under the stars. Either way, you will have an unforgettable experience!

ALL CONCERTS BEGIN AT 7:30 P.M.

LOGGIA SEATING • Performance level, unreserved seating

- Subscription to four concerts is $182, a savings of 30%.
- Single tickets are $65.
- Seating is on a first-come, first-served basis

LAWN ADMISSION • Adjacent to Loggia, restricted view

- Subscription to four concerts is $100, a savings of 10%.
- Single tickets are $28.
- Ticket holders must provide their own blanket or lawn chair for seating.

Because of the high demand for tickets, orders from subscribers and donors will be given priority, and will be filled in the order received. Ticket orders will be filled after April 18, 2013. Student Rush Lawn Admission tickets (full-time, with ID) are available on the day of the concert for only $10.

Pre-concert Dinners at The Huntington Tea Room

- Dinners are an additional $60 per person for the three course meal, including tax and gratuity.
- Available to concert-ticket holders only, reservations may be made with Southwest Chamber Music when you place your order.
- Wine and beer are available for purchase.
- Please choose your main course for each dinner ordered.

Please Note:

- Free parking and admission to The Huntington are included.
- Grounds open at 5:30 for dinner and picnicking patrons, and at 6:30 for concert patrons.
- Only a limited area of the grounds adjacent to the Loggia are open.
- No children under 8 years of age will be admitted.
- Lawn Admission ticket holders must provide their own blanket or lawn chair for seating.
- Picnicking is allowed only in the lawn area adjacent to Loggia.
- Programs and artists are subject to change.
- No refunds or exchanges can be provided.

GRAMMY® AWARD-WINNER

Southwest Chamber Music

JULY 13- AUGUST 25, 2013

SOUTHWEST CHAMBER MUSIC

Dear Friends,

Welcome to the 20th anniversary of Southwest Chamber Music's Summer Festival at The Huntington! I hope you will be able to join us for this very special birthday party. We look forward to presenting our popular blending of familiar favorites with the added spice of musical diversity.

Our celebratory programs this summer open with music for winds by Stravinsky and Mozart, combining the classicism of the 18th and 20th centuries in a bubbly concert worthy of a champagne celebration. Oliver Knussen's music for A.A. Milne's beloved Winnie the Pooh will feature the stratospheric soprano Delaram Kamareh.

Continuing our anniversary party, we present an intoxicating program of night music from Salzburg and Mexico City. Gabriela Ortiz's Baalak conjures up the pre-Colombian world in a masterpiece which brings this past world to musical life, featuring soprano Ayana Haviv and the Lyris Quartet. The evening's festivities open with one of Mozart's most beloved works, Eine Kleine Nachtmusik, and finishes with the erotic nocturnal work by Schoenberg, Verklärte Nacht.

Other highlights this summer include a commemoration of Benjamin Britten's centennial with works for tenor and harp featuring Daniel Chaney and Alison Bjorkedal, combined with colorful compositions by Henze and Janacek. Music by Wagner, Reger and Brahms round out this 20th anniversary summer.

To make your ordering as easy as possible, you can purchase our exclusive pre-concert dinners at The Huntington Tea Room when you place your ticket order. These delicious dinners are served in the intimate and beautiful Tea Room located in The Huntington's Rose Garden. The three-course dinners are only an additional $60 per person including tax and gratuity, and are available to all of our ticket buyers. Or, you have the option of bringing a picnic to enjoy on the most beautiful lawn in southern California.

FESTIVAL PASS DISCOUNT! For all four programs, a Festival Pass gives you 30% off Loggia Tickets, and we continue to offer a 10% discounted Festival Pass for Lawn Admission. Add in dinner or a picnic to make a complete night out, which includes a visit to the beautiful Huntington Main Art Gallery.

NO EXTRA FEES! Your ticket price and add-on dinner fee is all you pay, and parking is free. Our friendly staff will take your order by phone toll-free at 1-800-726-7147 and do the work for you. Or, send your order by mail, or order on our website if you prefer. However you order, there are no extra fees!

Where else can you hear Southern California's two-time Grammy Award-winning music ensemble, enjoy a picnic or an exclusive dinner beforehand at the charming Tea Room, and stroll through The Huntington's art gallery? Don't miss this opportunity to attend the 20th anniversary of the Summer Festival at The Huntington!

See you this summer,

Jeff von der Schmidt, Artistic Director

Saturday, August 24 and Sunday, August 25

Benjamin Britten	Eight Folk Song Arrangements
Hans Werner Henze	L'autunno for Winds
Benjamin Britten	A Birthday Hansel
Leoš Janáček	Mladi for Wind Sextet

A true Wagnerian rarity opens this concert. Composed soon after finishing his monumental Ring Cycle, Wagner took a few moments to compose this "thank you" note for solo piano to his publisher, Betty Schott. Music worthy of a rich German dessert wine, the Clarinet Quintet of Reger is his last and most beloved piece of chamber music, an outpouring of melodic warmth rarely equaled that will feature Southwest's extraordinary clarinetist Jim Foschia. To top off this interesting concert, another member of the wind family creates a new sound with the heroic Horn Trio of Johannes Brahms.

Our final concert is an evening of music by three of the greatest opera composers of the 20th century: Benjamin Britten, Hans Werner Henze and Leoš Janáček. The centennial of Benjamin Britten is celebrated with two wonderful harp and voice works with tenor Daniel Chaney and harpist Alison Bjorkedal. Henze's L'autunno is an Italianate opera for winds featuring a cornucopia of instruments joining the traditional wind quintet, including piccolo, alto flute, oboe d'amore, bass clarinet, contrabassoon and even a Wagner tuba. The summer concludes with the wise remembrances of childhood from Czech master Leoš Janáček.
